The Paraguay forward is looking to take full advantage of the fact that his transfer from QPR was delayed by several months and on-loan at Aston Villa. "I have been looking at training on television," said Anelka. "I am still looking for a contract and I want to keep improving. I will look forward to testing myself against Reading. "We have a training camp in Portugal and then a trip to Reading to take part in the Reading v Tottenham charity match. It is going to be a tough fight and I have a lot of respect for Reading. We know we have a good team and we'll be going there with confidence. "It is my dream to play Champions League football. I am still at Aston Villa, but they want me to win something. "I want to win promotion with West Ham and play Champions League football. I am just after doing the best I can for my club, my country and the team. I want to give everything and at the end of the day, if it is not going well then I will have to run back home to Paraguay."19. It has much less action than the 10mm/22, it holds a lot less ammo than the 10mm/22, and it has less of a powerful kick than the 10mm/22. Also it has less weight and no grip, so if one falls out, it is more easily lost. There are other calib
